What is a Veranda?

A veranda is a roofed outdoor structure, typically attached to the side of a house, that extends your living space into the garden or patio area.

Designed to create a comfortable outdoor environment, verandas provide the perfect place to relax with friends and family. Whether you're hosting a social gathering, enjoying outdoor dining, or simply unwinding in the fresh air, a veranda allows you to enjoy the outdoors while remaining sheltered from the elements.

Please note: while our veranda structures are engineered to be highly weather-resistant, they are not designed to be completely waterproof in all conditions. During severe weather, some water ingress may occur, which is normal and does not indicate a fault with the product.
